

Fly Fishing Internship 2014

Every year since our founding, the Delaware River Club has offered an internship opportunity that is a “nirvana” experience for the person with flyfishing experience or the person who wants to pursue a career in the fly fishing industry. The DRC was named as one of the 20 Best Luxury Resorts in the World in published in 2003. Benefits include free accommodations, meal allowance, and more.

The Delaware River Club is located on the West Branch of the Delaware River in N.E. Pennsylvania in the Southern Catskills. The area is one of the most beautiful in the world with large pristine rivers loaded with wild trout and smallmouth bass, surrounded by the lush green mountains of the Catskills and Northern Poconos.

Duties and educational experience include:

- Fly shop management, sales and administrative projects such as orders, purchases, inventory management, etc.
- Training for Flyfishing School instructor and river flyfishing guide positions
- Free use of equipment and fly fishing gear
- Training for drift boat techniques
- Flyfishing marketing and promotional projects
- Fly fishing lodge administration
- Daily River reports on conditions and techniques plus posting on internet and voice mail systems
- Website updates, design, and much more!
